

THE IMPORTANCE OF ACCESSIBILITY

CashSchool

Accessibility is crucial to ensure equitable access of information especially when working with multilingual working groups. Essential for fostering clear, inclusive, and respectful interactions across diverse cultures, languages, and abilities.

Translation Tools

DeepL - Premium version can translate whole documents

Reverso - Free quick translation dictionary as well as a grammar checker and “rephraser”

Google and Bing translators - Provider similar services

Fiverr - A site for finding online freelance workers, included real translation services

Dyslexia Support

Including speech-to-text tools (Speechify, ICanRead, Eleven Labs)

Audio resources - summaries/podcasts (NotebookLM)

Grammar assistants (Grammarly, Ginger Software, TextAid)

Reading aids (BeeLine, CleverType)

Autism Support Tools

Job Coaching and Simulations (VirtualSpeech, Floreo)

Sentiment Analysis tools (Replika, Crystal Knows, Goblin Tools)

Environment control - temperature / lighting / sound

Hearing Support

Live Captions (Teams, Google Meet)

Sign Language Apps

Visual Alerts (Alexa, Google Assistant)

Visual Impairments

Photo descriptions (Be My Eyes)

Text-to-Speech (Voice Dream, Speechify, Eleven Labs)

Bookshare AI Tools

ADHD Tools

Time management / Task prioritisation (Motion, Reclaim)

Removing distractions (Krisp, FocusMate, reading aids and grammar assistants)

Earbuds + white noise

General tools for more equitable access to information:

Goblin Tools - Simple AI driven tools, for when things feel too big or complicated

ClickUp - Project management tool with active AI chat support

tiimo - A planning app that makes time visual, built for neurodivergent minds otter.ai - Strong transcription, summarising, and live interactive AI note-taking